

Foreclosure & Bank Accountability Campaign Timeline

April 2011 – May 2015, Prince William County & Manassas, VA

September 20, 2011 – VOICE Citizen Investigators launch their report about rampant robo-signing in the Prince William area.

CTRONIC REGISTRATION SYSTEMS

BY:
Name: Christine Anderson
Title: VP

with authority so to act for the purp
TEST:
By: Christine Anderson ✓ P

May 14, 2012 – A small team of VOICE leaders meets with GE CEO Jeff Immelt in Washington, DC.

April 25, 2012 – VOICE leaders observe GE's Annual Meeting in Detroit, MI.

March 6, 2012 – 100 VOICE leaders symbolically “fire” GE CEO Jeff Immelt at GE's offices in DC.

October 1, 2012 – Bank of America announces $20 million in affordable housing investment & $50 million in principal & debt reduction in front of 850 VOICE leaders, key Delegates Lingamfelter & Anderson, US Sen. Mark Warner, & US HUD Secretary Shaun Donovan.

September 4, 2013 – VOICE citizen investigators release report about JPMorgan's credit card robo-signing and present first copy to CFPB Director Cordray in face-to-face meeting.

November 19, 2013 – After advocacy from VOICE, Senator Warner & allies, DOJ includes $1:$1 credit to JPMorgan for grants to “community equity restoration funds” in $13 billion global settlement with JPMorgan to allow investment in VOICE's plan.

June 20, 2013 – After two weeks, JPMorgan says “no” to VOICE's demand. 75 VOICE leaders deliver photos of JPMorgan vacant homes to bank's private wealth offices in DC. VOICE delivers letters to OCC, CFPB, & Fed about JPMorgan's business practices.

April 10, 2011 – Foreclosure Accountability Campaign launched with 250 leaders in Georgetown South in Manassas.

June 3, 2013 – With 500 VOICE leaders, state housing finance agency commits $15 million in long-term capital to VOICE's pilot. Sen. Warner, Bank of America, & GE praise the plan & partners as good business. JPMorgan asks for more time in last minute negotiation.

September 19, 2014 – VOICE leaders meet JPMorgan Mortgage Bank CEO Kevin Watters in NYC. VOICE offers final compromise, asking JPMorgan to match philanthropic monies raised (up to $10 million).

September 16, 2014 – After lobbying from VOICE, VA AG Herring announces $1.15 billion lawsuit against major banks including JPMorgan.

May 20, 2014 – 20 VOICE leaders & investor allies attend JPMorgan annual meeting in Tampa, FL, challenge Dimon to fulfill his commitment to do what is “right and just” for Prince William County.

November 21, 2012 – After intervention from Sen. Warner, JP Morgan Chase commits $864,000 for housing counselors and agreement in principle to affordable housing investment.

October 17, 2012 – GE CEO Jeff Immelt commits to $5 million investment in affordable housing, more investment in housing counselors at a meeting with VOICE leaders in Fairfield, CT.

October 30, 2011 – 1,000 VOICE leaders & Sen. Mark Warner hear Bank of America & JP Morgan Chase commit to fund housing counselors & to negotiate seriously about VOICE's $300-500 million reinvestment proposal.

June 3, 2012 – Bank of America & JP Morgan Chase commit to working towards an agreement by October 2012 about the proposed $300-500 million reinvestment proposal. GE agrees to negotiate seriously.

May 11, 2011 – Rev. Clyde Ellis attends Bank of America Annual Shareholders' Meeting in Charlotte. CEO Brian Moynihan commits to “mak[ing] things right” in Prince William County.

July 26-30, 2011 – More than 200 Prince William families attend VOICE / Bank of America Mortgage Modification Event where families can receive answers on site.