Nuts & Bolts of Relational Organizing: Relational Meetings & Role of Leaders

In most institutions 10% of the people are doing 90% of the work. VOICE University Part 1 will teach the art and craft of the relational meeting, a critical skill for you to identify new leaders for your institutions and VOICE core team. Join us to learn for the first time or hone the art of the relational meeting used by clergy, leaders and organizers around the USA and in several other countries to build their congregations and community institutions and to take joint action for the common good.
