June 23, 2013 – Nearly 600 people packed Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Arlington, VA for a VOICE “Public Land for Public Good” Action calling for a new commitment by the County Board to build 1,500 new affordable housing units on county-owned land. VOICE leaders collected over 10,000 signatures to reflect popular support for their effort and went on to get the county board to commit to identifying the first sites for development.

Who is VOICE?

VOICE is Virginians Organized for Interfaith Community Engagement

VOICE believes that people working together have the power to change their communities and their country for the better. Drawing on the proven power of person-to-person organizing, our work transforms communities and builds the local power necessary to create local, regional, and national change.

VOICE is a broad-based organization of almost 50 faith congregations and community organizations. Christian, Jewish, and Muslim, new immigrants and longtime citizens, Republicans, Democrats, and Independents, we are over 125,000 strong in Arlington, Alexandria, Fairfax County and the Prince William area. Through research, relationships, and collective action we are able to win on issues that impact low and middle income families.

Highlights from Our Work in 2013

- Winning $30 Million to Revitalize Blighted Properties & Build Affordable Housing in Prince William

- Training 150+ New Leaders In Broad-Based Organizing and Recruiting 4 New Institutional Members
- Having 39 Congregations/Institutions Support our Work with Contributions of Over $200,000

On April 10th, 7 VOICE institutions brought more than 450 leaders to stand with tens of thousands of others on the National Mall in Washington, DC to push for just, comprehensive, compassionate, and accountable immigration reform. Pictured are leaders from Good Shepherd Catholic Church on the bus.

Aisha Haji, from Dar Al-Hijrah Islamic Center, helps host a candidate forum with Arlington County Board Candidates putting the issue of affordable housing front and center in the election.

230 tenant & VOICE leaders walked a mile to send a powerful message to Fairfax County officials: we are ONE RESTON, united to preserve Crescent Apartments. The action led Supervisor Hudgins & County Board Chair Bulova to commit that “all residents will have the opportunity to remain at Crescent after redevelopment.”
